

British Values and Christian Values at TWF

At The Winterton Federation we endeavour to nurture unique individuals in a happy, safe, respectful and inclusive environment, where everyone is inspired to be the best they can be throughout their journey of life.

“Let us run with perseverance, the race that is set before us” (Hebrews 12:1)

We are all proud to be united in faith, vision and ambition.

“It shouldn’t take any intervention from my department to say that young people should be learning the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, tolerance and respect - because these British values are fundamentally a good thing. Fundamental British values are the attributes that have in this century and the last, made our country one of the greatest forces for good. They’re the values that bind us together, that mean despite the many differences in our nation, we’re united as one people. ... So I’m unapologetic in saying that no school should be exempt from promoting fundamental British values, just as no school should be exempt from promoting rigorous academic standards.” (Rt Hon Nicky Morgan: Why Knowledge Matters, 27 January 2015)

“... the Bible has helped to give Britain a set of values and morals which make Britain what it is today.” (David Cameron)

The Winterton Federation promotes the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs. The British values defined in the Government 2011 Prevent Strategy and reiterated in 2014 are reinforced regularly.

The key Christian beliefs that underpin both Christian and British values are that:

- God is a God of order, and that his world should reflect a sense of purpose, not chaos
- That every person is made in the image of God, known, loved and valued as a unique creation
- Humans are designed to be interdependent, supporting others and being supported, like a body with many parts.
- Christian Values and British Values can be summoned up in the New Commandment - My command is this: Love one another as I have loved you. John 15 V12.
